

SPANISH YEAR 12 SEPTEMBER 2023

SUMMER TASKS:

- Watch El Laberinto del Fauno/Pan's Labyrinth (it is currently available on Netflix)
- Complete The Great Spanish Language Challenge – bring in evidence if you can e.g. photos of Spanish meal
- Prepare your A Level folder (lever arch) using the Really Useful Spanish Booklet

The suggestions below are designed as a starting point for you to find Spanish topics and media that interest and inspire you, but they will undoubtedly lead you to your own discoveries of great films, podcasts, websites and other resources. Here are some tasks to and if you have any questions please do not hesitate to email me at: mgreen@rwba.org.uk

1. Watch Spanish TV/Films:

FILMS: There are a range of films on Netflix and free films on the following website:

<https://www.rtve.es/television/somos-cine/>

SERIES : There are several series on Netflix such as ; Elite, La Casa de Papel, Cable Girls, Narcos. Many of the shows on Netflix and Disney+ can also be played using Spanish audio.

2. Listen to the news on the radio:

https://www.newsinslowspanish.com/?gclid=EAlaIQobChMI9MGN2bnv6AIVQbTtCh1CHwX8EAAYASAAEgK7KvD_B this is made for students learning Spanish so a great resource! <https://www.radio.net/s/rneradionacional>

3. Read Spanish news:

www.elpaís.es and www.20minutos.es what we use for 'las noticias' - very clearly divided into sections

4. Watch news on TV:

https://wwitv.com/tv_channels/b6146-RTVE-24h.htm,

<https://www.rtve.es/directo/canal-24h/>, <https://www.lasexta.com/noticias-ultima-hora/>

5. Revision of GCSE topics and grammar:

www.languagesonline.org.uk and www.spanishdict.com

6. Sign up for Duolingo

7. Listen to Spanish music:

Playlists on Youtube, www.lascuarentaprincipales.es or create your own playlist on www.spotify.com/uk

8. Read a Spanish book:

<https://www.thespanishexperiment.com/>,

<https://www.bookrix.com/books;lang:es.html> , <https://spanishnovels.net/>

